

Celebrating black, minority ethnic, refugee and migrant heritage

An event for not-for-profit organisations that want to celebrate their BME, refugee or migrant heritage.

Would you like to deliver a project that celebrates your community's heritage? Wondering how to build a strong project?

The Ahmed Iqbal Ullah Education Trust and the Heritage Lottery Fund (North West) can help you. Come to our free joint event on the 1st December at Central Library

10 – 11.10 Ahmed Iqbal Ullah Education Trust: What makes a good heritage project?

- An introduction to the Ahmed Iqbal Ullah Race Relations Resource Centre and Education Trust
- Examples of strong heritage projects
- Key elements of a successful heritage project

This workshop will draw on the Trust's substantial experience and help you plan your project thoroughly.

BOOKING ESSENTIAL

11.30 – 12.30 An introduction to the Heritage Lottery Fund

- Examples of previously funded BME heritage projects
- What HLF looks for in applications
- How to take your idea forward

This presentation will share key information about HLF and its approach to funding. You will learn what HLF look for in applications and gain ideas on how to develop your project.

BOOKING ESSENTIAL

1.30 – 5.30 Drop-In sessions

Talk to HLF staff on hand for short conversations with you about your project ideas.

Take a tour of the Race Relations Resource Centre – learn how the library can share your project findings.

We have very limited places for the morning workshops so booking is essential. Afternoon slots will be on a first-come-first served basis (we think 1.30 – 3 will be busiest)

If you're interested please send an email to northwest@hlf.org.uk telling us:

1. Your name
2. Your organisation name
3. Which morning session you want to attend
4. Your phone number and email address

If you have a question please call Meghan O'Neill on 0161 200 8496.
