

Family Ties - The Adamah Papers

Tracing your African Caribbean Roots workshop with Adrian Stone

Saturday 22 April 2017

1.30pm-3.30pm

At Manchester Central Library, Room PS1

Adrian is an experienced genealogist who has researched his own family history for over eight years from his African ancestors to Jamaica. This unique workshop will offer you the opportunity to search your own family tree, learn about the tools you can access and gain first hand tips from the expert. Space is limited, so early booking is advisable to secure your space.

This workshop is sponsored by Black Cultural Archives as part of the Family Ties – The Adamah Papers project.

This new exhibition explores a collection of papers belonging to The Adamah Family, a Ghanaian family of Kings which date from 1885 to the 1950's and reflect on daily life and their own migratory history.

The Ahmed Iqbal Ullah Education Trust will be hosting the Adamah Family Ties exhibition during April and May 2017 in Manchester Central Library. This project is funded by Heritage Lottery Fund.

To book your place, go to <https://www.ticketsource.co.uk/date/351162>, email rrarchive@manchester.ac.uk or call 0161 275 2920. Participants will need to bring a laptop or tablet to the workshop.
